

19 Q. And she says if a town does not meet the 20 10 percent threshold -- which she has already covered 21 that Branford doesn't do -- then any developer proposing
22 an affordable housing development has a substantial
23 advantage. That is what she wrote. Do you remember her 24 saying that to you orally or words to that effect?

25 A. Probably to that effect. I don't recall her

1 orally saying that. I think I clearly understood it.
2 Whether it came from her or somehow that I got it,
3 whether I did some research on my own or not, you know,
4 I don't know that. And when the time was that this came 5 about, I don't know. I couldn't give you this timeline.
6 It is dated October of 2002. It may have been before
7 that I probably knew that kind of stuff.
